OUR STUDENTS

Our university isn't average and neither are our students.

Juggling school and work was stressful for Mateusz G. and he decided to quit his program. He was determined to find a flexible higher education option that worked. After enrolling in the Business Administration program at UoPeople he now works at Shell, one of the biggest energy companies in Poland. Mateusz shared, "I can now plan ahead and create a schedule that fits my lifestyle." Read more about Mateusz's plans for the future, click here.
